First Communion Retreat (An Overnight for Parents & Youth) March 30-31, 2007 at Imago Dei Village

First Communion is a very special milestone in our journey of faith, and Crossways would like to highlight that event through unique weekend retreat that is bound to be a yearly event for many congregations. We invite one or both parents to attend this overnight retreat with their child who is in First Communion instruction.

You will enjoy conversations which are aimed at helping the parent to pass on the Faith through activities and crafts. Family groups will make bread that can be used at their first communion (if that is OK with your Pastor!) We will even have some time for parents to talk to other parents about Christian perspectives on parenting, while camp staff leads the youth in games elsewhere. There will also be camp style camp-fire, worship, and a whole lot of fun.

If your congregation would like to send a group of students/parents, please call our office to reserve space for your group.
